

EHRWALDER ALM SHRED – the 2nd tour stop of the Chill and Destroy tour promises a high-class driver's field and perfect park terms.

Ehrwald, 18th of January, 2012;

On Saturday, 28th of January, 2012 goes with the EHRWALDER ALM SHRED the Chill and Destroy Slopestyle tour to the second round.

Numerous known rider have preannounced themselves to take part in the mixed slopestyle event (snowboard & freeski) in Ehrwald, Among them are Matze Vogt and Vincent Genannt (both GER), Chris Knightley (GBR), Piotr Janosz (POLE), Patrick Habegger and Roman Hausammann (both SUI) with the snowboarders and Daniel and Hannes Oberbichler (both GER) who registered on the CaD website.

Ehrwald is a proven venue of CaD tour stops and always a guarantees for perfect contest conditions. The BETTERPARK EHRWALD shall be constructed again by the chief-shaper Wille Kaufmann and his team in very best state. And the extensive snowfalls of the last weeks make Ehrwald during these days certainly not only for the slopestyler an absolute dream aim.

The EHRWALDER ALM SHRED starts on Saturday on time at 10.15 o'clock. Registration and start number issueing is till 10.00 o'clock directly in the fun park. The finale of the best rider rises at approx. 13.45 o'clock. The winner's honour takes place directly after the finale at approx. 15.15 o'clock.

Partners:

CaD Tour-Sponsors: Planet-Sports.com, Red Bull, Chanex, Ziener, Smartwool;

Ehrwalder Alm Shred-Event sponsors: Arbor Snowboards

Media: Playboard, Snowboarder MBM, Whiteout, Golden Ride, Skiing, Downdays.eu, Freeskiers.net, Riders.eu, Sport2.de, Funsporting, de, Snowboarden.de, Twoleffteet.com, Rebel.tv,